The Committee on the Minutes of the Synods submitted their report, which was received, and reads as follows:

The Committee on Minutes of the Synods respectfully submit the following report:

They have examined the Minutes of the Synods, under the instructions connected with their appointment, and find the following items claiming the attention of this Synod:

I.) MINUTES OF THE SYNOD OF THE GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH
IN THE U. S.

Item 1, Minutes of 1861, pages 29 and 30. The propriety of organizing a Sunday School Association, to which shall be entrusted the superintendence of the entire Sunday School interests of our Church, is referred to the consideration of this General Synod.

Item 2, Minutes of 1863. A committee of three, consisting of the Rev. Geo. B. Russell, B. Bausman, and Elder John Meily, was appointed, to prepare a report on the subject of an Orphan Asylum, to be submitted to this General Synod.

Item 3, Same Minutes. The Synod has instructed its Treasurer to pay over to this General Synod $500, part of a donation, made by the Rev. Dr. Philip Schaff, which, according to the expressed wishes of the donor, is to be invested as the "German Hymn Book Fund," the interest of which shall be used for such general Church purposes, as this Synod may see fit to designate.

Item 4, Same Minutes. The Synod, in view of the importance of the subject, and the fact that it concerns the whole Church East and West, commends to the earnest consideration of this General Synod, the question as to How the Synod holds its Church property; and has appointed a committee, consisting of the Rev. J. O. Miller, Hon. David Krause, Hon. John W. Killinger and Hon. John Cessna to prepare a legal paper on the subject and present it to this General Synod for information and consideration.

Item 5, Same Minutes. The Synod has adopted a resolution, declaring, that, while according to the Constitution, the Heidelberg Catechism alone can be used in Catechetical instruction, yet, in Sunday Schools other books may be used, provided always they harmonize with our doctrinal symbol, and that the Heidelberg Catechism be brought into prominent use in all our Sunday Schools; and for the purpose of eliciting more definite action on this subject, it respectfully refers it to this General Synod.

Item 6, Same Minutes. In view of the calamities which have befallen our beloved fatherland in the form of a desolating civil war, and remembering the example of Christ and his Apostles and that of our forefathers in the days of our own struggle for independence, the Synod respectfully recommends to this General Synod, the propriety of addressing to our ministers and congregations, a pastoral letter, administering to them such affectionate Christian counsel and advice, as, in the wisdom of this Synod, the case may seem to require.

Item 7, Same Minutes. The Synod further requests this General Synod to take into consideration the propriety of the following measures:

1.) The consolidation of the Theological Institutions of the Church into one—subject to the final action of the several Synods, which control the Seminaries.

2.) The establishment of at least two Tercentenary Professorships jointly for the Seminaries, and the appointment of one or more agents for the purpose.

II.) MINUTES OF THE SYNOD OF THE GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH OF OHIO AND ADJACENT STATES.

Item 1. Minutes 1863, page 12. In view of the fact, that a great variety of Liturgies are in use in different portions of the Church, the Synod has adopted the following resolutions :

1.) Resolved, That this Synod feels the necessity of a Liturgy that can be brought into general use throughout the entire Church, so as to secure uniformity of worship.

2.) Resolved, That this Synod is opposed to the continued use of the Provisional Liturgy, as such, and would request the General Synod so to modify it as to enable us to introduce it into our congregations.

3.) Resolved, That should the Provisional Liturgy not admit of such modification, the General Synod be earnestly requested to take measures at once to provide a Liturgy adapted to the wants of the Church.

4.) Resolved, That, in case the General Synod does not feel prepared to act in this matter, it be requested to allow us to provide a Liturgy which, in our opinion, will be adapted to the wants of our Church, and that a committee of five be appointed to go forward in this work, should the contingency arise.

Deep interest in, and ardent devotion to, the doctrines of our venerable Symbol of Faith, were practically manifested ; while its honorable origin, and its trials and triumphs were called into grateful and happy remembrance. The occasion was one of happy memories, of instructive entertainment, of spiritual edification, and of joyous commingling of hearts !

SUNDAY.—The Lord's Supper.

In the evening, which had been specially set apart for this purpose, the members of Synod, as the representatives of all the different sections of the entire German Reformed Church in the United States, and now for the first time assembled in the capacity of its highest Judiciary and of Ecclesiastical Union, unitedly approached the sacramental altar and participated in the communion of the Lord's Supper, and thus vitally and practically confirmed the scriptural declaration, that "we, being many, are one body in Christ, and members one of another." What could have been more appropriate, hallowed and significant! The sermon on this occasion was preached by Rev. Dr. H. Harbaugh. The occasion was not only one of interest and edification, but premonitory of the future unity, oneness, devotion and prosperity of the Reformed Church.

Rev. Henry W. Super, and Elders Abraham Beam and Josiah Miller, from the Classis of Westmoreland, appeared and took their seats as advisory members.

Rev. Wm. Goodrich, delegate from East Susquehanna Classis, was excused in consequence of sickness from further attendance on the sessions of Synod.

The Committee on the general subject of Orphan Asylums again submitted their report. The report was received, and, after a brief discussion and some slight amendments, adopted. It is as follows:

One of the chief blessings left to the inheritance of the body of believers by their Divine Head, the Lord Jesus, is the perpetual presence in the Church of the poor. The Holy Scriptures are verified in His word that: The poor ye have always. But doubtless chief among the poor is that class known as orphans. To the sacred care of the Church, the true mother of us all, are these left, by Him, who has declared Himself to be the Father of the fatherless, and whose holy religion, pure and undefiled, visits the fatherless and widows in their affliction.

The true Church can never be unmindful of this holy trust; and hence, we find, in all ages, living Christianity making due account of this precious legacy. As a true mother bestows the tenderest care upon the weakest of her household; even so the Church makes it a specially binding duty to provide, with real maternal love, for the orphan, as one of the least of Christ's own; to whom, if received in His name, the giving of a cup of cold water is by no means unrewarded. And lest the bleak world of sin should cause "one of these little ones to offend," they are to be taken into a more safe retreat, such as is of gracious right theirs, in the nurture of a Christian family. While then the State, in the order of the natural and human, creates and maintains Orphan Asylums only, the Church, warmed by the love of Jesus Christ, provides orphans that are homeless, with the gracious atmosphere and surroundings of a truly Christian household ; where the solitary may be set in families, as in the Christian Orphan's Home.

This great truth of practical Christianity has come to be felt for some time, in the general consciousness of our beloved Zion—as expressed in the action of the several Classes and Synods. It is therefore no longer an open question, whether or not, we ought to have such institutions in the Reformed Church of this country. The only unsettled question all along would seem to have been : Whether, with all our other necessary out-lay of effort, with our few men, and small means, we could now come to assume formally and in good faith heartily, this great duty, as scripturally also included in the "every good word and work" of the Church.

Many and great hindrances, it was thought, have hitherto stood in the way of this—nearly all of these however resting back in the peculiar circumstances of our early history in this country. But these have all been doubtless so nearly overcome, that it is now high time to awake out of sleep and begin in earnest faith and hope, this great part also of our work.

An additional incentive, if one were needed to urge us to this duty, is at hand in the mournful fact : that in these times of our national troubles and terrible scourgings by war and rebellion, the number of orphans is fearfully increased—and is yet more increasing.

Now too, that in this Tercentenary Jubilee of our Reformed Church, the Lord, our Saviour, has put it into the hearts of some of our people to contribute liberally towards the special funds necessary to found, establish and successfully carry on, such a scheme of Christian benevolence ; we think the fit time has fully come for this, our first General Synod, to take such official action as will not only sanction by its authority, but will also more fully draw out and give direction to, the spontaneous movements of the membership of the Church in behalf of this very worthy cause, the care of the orphan.

We may be further encouraged to take this action, because the material means for starting such institutions need not at first be very great. Indeed the beginnings of most such things had best be very small. Regard, in the way of true faith, ought first of all, to be had, for the sustaining of them, to the hand of Him who feeds the young ravens when they cry, and who is more ready to give, than his servants are to ask of Him.

Most surely will the Lord provide the Orphan's Home with its daily bread.

Then with the means furnished by liberal hearts, a small farm could be secured for each such Home; from the proceeds of which, with the labor of the larger grown inmates, these economical establishments could be in large part self-sustaining. The necessary industry of the Homes might also, to some extent, engage in the mechanic arts; but in no case, however, should the labor be carried to an extent for money making beyond that of mere incidental contribution towards self-support. And even a large endowment fund, would perhaps not be as desirable, all things considered, as the continued small gifts, flowing from the living charities of the Church from year to year—for thus itself cultivated and twice blessed, it would be realized, that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

In view of these brief considerations, and others which might be given in a more extended report, the following resolutions are therefore proposed for the favorable action of this body:

Resolved, That the General Synod of the Reformed Church, in the fear of God, and relying on His guidance and the divine blessing, hereby solemnly engages to enter upon the duty of more systematically providing Christian Homes, for the poor orphan children that may be left by His providence to our care.

Resolved, That, the general supervision and management of this whole interest be, and is hereby, committed to a General Board of Directors, consisting of five members, two of whom shall be elected at each regular meeting of the General Synod. They shall be a corporate body, and as such shall hold in trust sacredly, all funds and other property set apart for such use; and shall furnish to each regular meeting of the General Synod a full report of their trust.

Resolved, That in case the Church, for instance in a particular city, or an association of individual members, or one Classis or more, or a Synod, organize and establish a local Orphan's Home, it shall stand in auxiliary relation to the General Board, to whom, it shall annually submit a report of its operations; but such branch institutions shall nevertheless be under the immediate management, in all respects as to their particular affairs internally, of their own local Board, appointed by the interests represented in such Home, and who shall receive and use donations made to the same and to which the General Board of Directors may make grants from the General Orphan's Home Fund, and shall appropriate all the proceeds of such special gifts which may be made in favor of such particular Home.

Resolved, That whatever be the varied internal regulations of these branch Homes, the general form of their government shall always be based on the idea of the "Christian Family," under the nurturing life of the Reformed Church, as that flows from the true faith taught in the Heidelberg Catechism.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. B. RUSSELL, Chairman.

In this connection, and by way of corroboration and recommendation, the following resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That the subject matter of providing Homes for the poor and destitute of our Church, be brought to the notice of the several Classes, and by them to the respective consistories of each congregation, with the view of more fully enforcing the duties devolving upon the Deacons of the German Reformed Church.

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Orphan Home shall consist of two ministers and three laymen.

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to propose a double number of names, from which Synod shall elect the required number of Directors for the Orphan Home.

This committee consists of Rev. Dr. H. Harbaugh, and M. Williard, and Elder D. Zeller. This Committee subsequently submitted their report, which was received and adopted. The election was then held, and resulted in the choice of Rev. John W. Nevin, D. D., and Geo. B. Russell, and Elders Charles Santee, G. S. Griffith and Wm. E. Schmertz.

The Committee on the subject as to How the Synod holds its church property, submitted their report, which was received and adopted :

The Committee appointed by the Eastern Synod to report to the General Synod on the subject of Church property, beg leave respectfully to report :

That they have not as yet had time to have a formal meeting, nor yet given the subject the consideration which its importance demands. They, therefore, would ask, that this Synod would formally recognize this Committee as its own and continue it, with authority to submit a report on this subject to the Particular Synods, at their next annual meetings, and also to the General Synod at its next regular meeting, for their consideration and adoption. And in the meantime this General Synod instruct the churches or congregations within our entire limits, to carefully avoid in their titles, charters, deeds, and use of their property, anything that may endanger such Church property.

Respectfully submitted,

J. O. MILLER, Chairman.

Thereupon, in accordance with the spirit and the recommendation contained in the foregoing report, it was,

Resolved, That the Committee of the Eastern Synod on the subject of Church property be appointed the Committee of this General Synod, and that this Committee be requested to mature an item with respect to the legal titles of our Church property, and report to the Particular Synods at their next annual meetings.

The regular order of the day for eleven o'clock, the fixing of the place and time for the next meeting of the General Synod, was taken up. The places proposed were Philadelphia, Baltimore, Buffalo, Cincinnati and Dayton.

The Synod then proceeded to vote for the place and time of holding its next triennial meeting, and the result was, that the first German Reformed Church of Dayton, Ohio, was chosen as the place, and the Wednesday before Advent Sunday, November 28th, 1866, in the evening at 7 o'clock, was fixed as the time.

The Committee on Missions submitted their report. The report was received, amended, taken up item by item, and finally adopted as a whole.

The Committee on Missions beg leave to present the following report:

In the Constitution it is expressly stated, that to the General Synod "shall belong the management of the Foreign Missions of the Church." The following action is therefore recommended:

Resolved, That the Board of Foreign Missions, as recently constituted by the Synod at Carlisle, be and is hereby constituted the Board of this General Synod.

Resolved, That this Board be enlarged by three ministers and two Elders from the Western Synod.

Resolved, That as a testimony of our gratitude to the Great Head of the Church for the revival of pure and undefiled religion among those, who have since lost in a great measure the form, as well as the power of vital godliness, and as an appreciation of the services of our Missionary—Rev. B. Schneider, D. D., we recommend to all our ministers, that they spread before their people the Lord's marvelous doings as an encouragement and incentive to more earnest prayer, and greater liberality for sustaining and enlarging our Missionary operations in that land, once consecrated by the labors of Apostles and the blood of Martyrs.

While the Constitution provides for the management of the Foreign Missions of the Church by the General Synod, it says nothing about its Home Missionary operations. We do not regard this silence as designed or intended to leave these in the hands of the Eastern and Western Synods, but simply leaving it open for this body to act as in its wisdom may be most subservient to the great and vital interests involved. To secure greater unity and efficiency, it would certainly be desirable, if a satisfactory arrangement can be made, that one Board should have the control and management of the Home Missions of the Church. At a conference of the members of the two Boards present at this Synod, this whole subject was discussed, and your Committee was requested to present the following expression of their wishes and feelings in the case. These resolutions are herewith submitted for the action of this body.

Resolved, That we recommend to Synod the propriety of organizing a Home Missionary Board, with instructions to perfect a plan of operations adapted to the present necessities of the missionary work—this Board to commence its operations as soon as the Boards now existing shall have been dissolved by their respective Synods.

Resolved, That we further recommend to Synod that the Secretary of this new Board be constituted a travelling agent and general superintendent, and that his whole time be devoted to the work of Missions, and that he receive for such services a competent salary.

Resolved, That a Missionary Meeting under the direction of the President in the chair, be held in Grace Church to night for which four speakers have been appointed—Rev. Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger, G. W. Williard, P. C. Prugh and J. H. Klein in the German language, and that a collection for Home Missions be taken up.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. FOULK, Chairman.

2. That the second clause of Article 70th of the Constitution be so amended as to read: "Its missionary operations shall be conducted by Boards specially appointed for the purpose by the General Synod;" and that the third clause of the same Article be so amended as to read: "These Boards shall be subject to the control of the General Synod, and shall each submit to it, at its regular meetings, a faithful report of its transactions, and the state of the interest committed to its care."

2. That the words "Home and," be inserted before the words, "Foreign Missions of the Church," at the close of the last clause of the 83d Article of the Constitution.

Resolved, That the Constitution of our Church, when published in the English language with the proposed amendments, shall be translated by a competent person into the German language, making it conform more fully in form and spirit with the character of such an instrument.

The special Committee appointed on item 5 of the Minutes of the Synods, submitted their report, which was received, and laid on the table until the Committee on the subject of a Sunday School Association report.

The Committee on the consolidation of the Theological Seminaries of the German Reformed Church, submitted their report, which was received, and, after some discussion, adopted.

The Committee on the consolidation of the Theological Seminaries beg leave to report :

That, although on some accounts such a union of the two Institutions may seem desirable, they deem it inexpedient to agitate the subject of such a consolidation at the present time.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. A. BOMBERGER, Chairman.

Elder Peter Loose, delegate from the St. Joseph Classis, in consequence of sickness in his family, was excused from further attendance on the sessions of Synod.

Rev. F. Strassner, from the East Pennsylvania Classis, appeared and took his seat as an advisory member.

Elder David Zeller, delegate from Maryland Classis, and Elder Geo. Heilman, delegate from Lebanon Classis, were excused from further attendance on the sessions of Synod.

The Committee on the subject of a Sunday School Association again submitted their report. The report was received, amended and adopted.

The Committee on the subject of Sunday Schools beg leave to submit the following as their report :

In their opinion the deficiencies complained of in the minute referred to them from the Eastern Synod, in reference to the loose and, in some cases, independent relations of Sunday Schools to the congregation, as well as the deficiencies in the manner in which many of the Schools are conducted, can be best reached through the various Classes, by requiring pastors and consistories to remedy the evils complained of. In regard to an improvement in the character of some of the books used in Sunday Schools, we believe the most practicable way to attain this object will be, by appointing a Board to whom this whole subject shall be committed.

The Committee therefore recommended the adoption of the following resolutions :

Resolved, That the different Classes throughout the Church be earnestly requested to see to it, that the Sunday Schools of the Church be conducted in accordance with sound Christian principles and the order of our Church, and that the pastors in their parochial reports be required to state the position and character of the Sunday Schools under their care in these particular features.

Resolved, That a Sunday School Board of eight members be appointed by this Synod, to whom this subject shall be entrusted. They shall prepare a Constitution for their government, to be approved by the General Synod, and among other things, provide for the appointment of an Executive Committee of five members, to whom all books designed for general use shall be submitted for examination. No book shall be published without the unanimous approval of the Committee.

Provided, however, that nothing in this arrangement and action shall be so construed as to limit or interfere with the publication operations of either of the Synods.

Resolved, That the Board shall render a report at every meeting of the General Synod, embracing, as far as may be possible, the number, character and condition of Sunday Schools throughout our Church, the number and character of the books used, and such other information as may have bearing on the subject.

Resolved, That the proceeds of the donation of five hundred dollars by Dr. Schaff to this Synod, and which by its resolution has been appropriated for German Sunday School publications, be placed at the disposal of the above Board of Sunday Schools.

Respectfully submitted,

B. S. SCHNECK, Chairman.

Bausman, G. W. Williard and P. C. Prugh, and Elders C. Santee and G. S. Griffith.

The report of the special Committee on Item 5 in the report on Synodical Minutes, having been laid on the table until after the reception and adoption of the report of the Committee on the subject of a Sunday School Association, was taken up, discussed and finally adopted.

The Committee to whom was referred Item 5 of the report on the Minutes of the Eastern Synod, would respectfully submit the following report :

After carefully considering the whole subject, they would recommend for adoption the resolution of said Synod, which declares : "That while according to the Constitution, the Heidelberg Catechism, alone, can be used in catechetical instruction, yet in Sunday Schools other Catechisms may be used, provided always they harmonize with our doctrinal symbol, and that the Heidelberg Catechism be brought into prominent use in all our Sunday Schools."

Respectfully submitted,

P. C. PRUGH, Chairman.

The Committee on the subject of the Liturgy submitted their report, which was received and considered. After considerable earnest discussion, a substitute was offered for the whole report. This substitute demanded the appointment of a committee, whose duty it should be to so revise and modify the "Provisional Liturgy," as to adapt it to the wants of the whole Church. On this form of the question, the greater part of the discussion of the whole subject was based. Pending this subject, the Synod adjourned to meet this evening at 7 o'clock. Prayer by Rev. T. P. Bucher.

TUESDAY Evening, November 24th, 7 o'clock.

The Synod met, and was opened with singing and prayer, by Rev. Dr. M. Kieffer.

The subject of the Liturgy, pending at adjournment, was resumed, and continued under discussion during the whole of the evening session, without arriving at any conclusive results.

Synod adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Benediction by the President.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 25th, 9 o'clock, A. M.

Synod met. Prayer by Rev. J. McConnell. A quorum present. The Minutes were read, amended and approved.

The regular order of business, being the subject of the Liturgy, was laid on the table for the purpose of attending to incidental matters.

Elder P. W. Dumbauld, delegate from Lancaster Classis, (O.) was excused from further attendance on the sessions of Synod.

Rev. H. Daniel, delegate secundus from Clarion Classis, was admitted to the seat of Rev. F. Wise, delegate primarius, who was excused from further attendance on the sessions of Synod.

Hereupon, the regular order of business, which had been laid on the table, was again taken up for further consideration. An amendment to the substitute was now offered and entertained. This amendment directed the Committee, called for in the substitute, to make the revision of the "Provisional Liturgy" on the basis of the specific instructions originally and repeatedly given to the Liturgical Committee by the Eastern Synod.

At this stage of the proceedings, and while the amendment was under discussion, the Synod adjourned until 2 o'clock, P. M. Prayer by Rev. Dr. S. R. Fisher.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 25th, 2 o'clock, P. M.

Synod met. Prayer by Rev. H. Kochler. A quorum present.

The regular order of business was again laid on the table, in order to attend to the excusing of the following named brethren from further attendance on the sessions of Synod, viz: Rev. I. S. Demund, delegate from Lancaster Classis (Pa.), Rev. S. Hess and Elder D. B. Mauger from Goshenhoppen Classis, Rev. S. Mease from Miami Classis, Rev. C. Cast from St. Joseph Classis, Rev. Dr. B. S. Schneck from Mercersburg Classis, and Elder J. Meily from Lebanon Classis.

The regular order of business, being the subject of the Liturgy, was resumed, and after some further discussion, the amendment to the substitute was voted upon, and carried.

The substitute, as amended, was then considered and discussed, and finally voted down.

The original report, as submitted by the Committee, was thereupon again taken into consideration, slightly amended, and finally adopted.

The Committee on the subject of the Liturgy, as referred to this Synod by the Synod of Ohio and adjacent States, would respectfully report:

That they have given the subject the attention and consideration, which its importance demands. They find the subject encumbered, with many difficulties, in view of the diversity of sentiment in reference to the liturgical question. In the opinion of a majority of the Committee, it is thought that should a modification of the Provisional Liturgy be pressed upon the Synod at the present time, there might be as much opposition to such modifications in certain portions of the Church, as there is now against the Liturgy in its present form, so that we would have as much diversity as now exists. Hence the Committee would recommend the following action :

Resolved, That the request of the Synod of Ohio and adjacent States be granted, namely, that they be allowed to prepare a Liturgy which in their judgment may be better adapted to the wants of the Church.

And whereas the Eastern Synod has also been engaged for a number of years in preparing a Liturgy adapted to the wants of the Church, and their work has not yet been finally revised, therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended to the Eastern Synod to go forward in the work of revising its Liturgy according to its own judgment, so that the General Synod may have before it also the Liturgy of the Eastern Synod in its complete form, in which they may desire it finally to appear, with a view to final action on the whole subject.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. WILLIARD, Chairman.

The Committee on Correspondence with Sister Churches, submitted their report, which was received, amended and adopted.

The Committee on Correspondence with Sister Churches, beg leave to report :

That it seems most appropriate that our denominational correspondence should be maintained by this Synod, rather than by the territorial or particular Synods, inasmuch as we represent the entire German Reformed Church. We, therefore, recommend that terms of correspondence be proposed to the following evangelical Church bodies, and as a substitute for that now maintained by the Eastern and Western Synods :

1. With the General Synod of the Lutheran Church.
2. With the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church.
3. With the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, N. S.
4. With the Triennial Synod of the Moravian Church.
5. With the Evangelical Church Union of the West.

It is not designed, however, that this action shall be any obstacle in the way of each Synod, belonging to this body, opening special correspondence with any other Ecclesiastical Body.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. A. BOMBERGER, Chairman.

In accordance with the design of the foregoing report, a committee, consisting of Rev. Dr. M. Kieffer, Dr. E. V. Gerhart, J. C. Bucher and J. H. Klein, and Elders D. S. Arnold and H. Leonard, were appointed to report a double number of names, from which to elect the proposed Delegates. This Committee subsequently submitted their report, which was received and adopted, and resulted in the election of the following persons :

General Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Rev. B. Bausman, primarius, and Rev. M. Kieffer, D. D., secundus.

Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church.

Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D. D., primarius, and Rev. S. H. Giesy, secundus.

General Synod of the Presbyterian Church, N. S.

Triennial Synod of the Moravian Church.

On motion,

Resolved, That a Committee of three ministers be appointed to open a regular correspondence with the Reformed Pastoral Conference of Switzerland, and with the Reformed Conference of Detmold, Germany. This Committee consists of Rev. John S. Kessler, D. D., Rev. Prof. Herman Rust and Rev. Benjamin S. Schneck, D. D.

On motion,

Resolved, That it be made a Standing Rule, hereafter, in the election of the different Boards of the General Synod, to put in nomination a double number of names.

The Rev. F. W. Kremer, delegate from the Lebanon Classis, Rev. S. Philips and Elder Dr. S. B. Kieffer, from Zion's Classis, were excused from attending the sessions of Synod after adjournment.

Synod adjourned until this evening at 7 o'clock. Benediction by the President.

WEDNESDAY Evening, Nov. 25th, 7 o'clock.

Synod met, and was opened with singing and prayer by Rev. I. H. Reiter. A quorum present.

The transaction of business was resumed, and a variety of matters claimed the attention of Synod, during the final session.

On motion, respecting the change of the name of our Church, from German Reformed to simply Reformed, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted :

WHEREAS, the original title of our Church was simply Reformed; and, whereas, the distinctive title of "German" affixed to the name of our Church in America has proven itself a hindrance to the success of our missionary operations in large cities and in the West—Therefore,

Resolved, That this Synod regards it as highly expedient and important to the future history and success of our Church, that we resume the original title Reformed.

Resolved, That this subject be referred to the several Classes at their next annual meetings, with the request that they acquiesce in the erasure of the word "German," and a return to the original distinctive name Reformed.

Resolved, That this Synod call the attention of the Committee on church property to this proposed change of name, and request them to give an opinion to the Classes by the time of their next annual meetings, whether such a change will effect our titles, bonds and invested funds.

Resolved, That the several Classes of both the Eastern and Western Synods, are requested to report their action to their respective Synods.

The Committee on the State of the Church submitted their report. The report was received, amended and adopted.

Rev. Fathers and Brethren of the General Synod of the Reformed Church :

Standing as we now do, on the threshold of a new era in the history of our Reformed Zion, we are called in this auspicious epoch to record, though it be necessarily in most imperfect summary, the general state of our Church. Our three hundred years of Protestant history joins us in the living communion of the Holy Catholic Church, with the goodly fellowship of the Apostles, the glorious company of martyrs and saints of all ages. And so, the ever present life of our blessed Redeemer, according to His eternal word of promise, becomes for our faith a glorious assurance, that our work, as well as that of our fathers, shall not be in vain in the Lord; and continuing with us also as a part of his mystical body, we thus bear his grace and salvation in the Gospel, to our ruined race. We note the following things :

I. Healthy life, as doubtless at the present time, the most striking characteristic of the Reformed Church. Without attempting to compare with what others are, the condition of our Church, we may safely compare her present with what was formerly her state. What we now are, is of course conditioned by what we have been. Whatever may have been the case at any previous period, certainly now in all essential points, we find the Church of the Heidelberg Catechism in this country imbued with sound healthy life.

Her sufferings and trials of the past may have somewhat marred her beauty, and so sorely tried her strength as to largely absorb her efforts, and thus leave much of her work undone; yet from all these tribulations she has finally come forth as a bride leaning on the arm of her Beloved.

Rationalism and Romanism have alike failed to corrupt her; schism has in vain tried to rend her into fragmentary sects; and the leaven of foreign heretical spirits has not been able to leaven the whole lump, either as to creed or customs bequeathed to us by the fathers. But these foreign elements have themselves been condemned and, by the gracious leadings of the Holy Spirit, well nigh purged out.

Bearing the cross through evil as well as through good report, the Reformed Church to-day stands, as it must be evident to all who take the trouble to learn what she now is, full of her own peculiar life. And that life seems also to be strong and healthy. She has power to feel herself in the exercise of her normal activities. The vitalizing power of the Spirit of Christ informs and pervades her whole order of sacred rites and ordinances, as at one with the word and sacraments. No galvanized merely human stimulants are needed to move her heavenly powers; for the life that is in the vine gives life to all the branches.

Self-conscious of this healthy state, she knows where to maintain her stand, and seeks more firmly to be settled and established in the faith of all Christendom on the foundation of the Apostles and prophets—and on Jesus Christ Himself, the chief cornerstone. Built up in Christian nurture, her educational system trains to a knowledge of the true God, and Jesus Christ, whom He has sent; which is eternal life.

This life has evidenced itself in a true revival, in both doctrine and devotions, not consisting in making anything new—but rather a re-inspiring of what was already at hand in her constituted powers, and return to her doctrines, her worship, her history and her holy offices. Others, whatever be their excellencies, reveal, we think, nothing equal to this true revival of zeal and piety in the Reformed Church, in behalf of the Catholic faith and ecumenical Church history. The last score of years, the Reformed Church, small and despised as she was among the other tribes of God's Israel, was well nigh alone in her efforts to stem the tide of practical heresies, and bring again into firm and hearty use, the old creeds, old customs and old worship—not only of the Reformation as that held three hundred years ago, but back also to the beginning of Christianity itself.

It required not only strong and active life, but also the power of faith resting on the ground and pillar of the truth, to endure what the Reformed Church suffered, in maintaining her existence in her peculiar life, customs and rites, and cultivating also a proper sense of self-respect. And now, at this first meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, we find her life revealing itself in the blooming flower, brought forth in our Tercentenary Jubilee, fragrant with the perfumed memories of our fathers, the aroma of their piety, and the sweet odors of their devotion.

II. Active and Vigorous Growth is another mark belonging to the Reformed Church at the present time, as the result of this healthy life.

Growth in grace is a privilege and duty of the whole body of Christ; and, if we trace the workings of the Reformed Church, we will find this life making progress in vigorous activity.

The Church of the Heidelberg Catechism has been growing steadily into a consciousness of what is comprehended in her system of Doctrine. Seeking out the old paths, she strikes her roots deeper, and plants herself more firmly on the true faith. It is refreshing to consider how much stronger she is, and how much more steadily she now maintains her position in faith and charity, than was the case at the end of the first quarter of the present century.

Not only does her growth, however, give signs of doctrinal self-consciousness, but also as a consequence of practical piety, of zeal and of love. The presence of the Holy Ghost working by the Gospel through the word and sacraments, is sanctifying the Church, making more saintly her membership.

Thus we find this growing life awakening a greater zeal for the cause of missions, for beneficiary education and for our literary and theological institutions. All these kindred interests are now steadily, and, in comparison with the past, rapidly growing. No less is it true of the actual increase of the number of the ministry and the membership of the Church. Our Colleges and Seminaries graduate larger classes now than formerly.

Our people are also building larger and more churchly houses of worship; they are awakening to a sense of greater liberality, and are founding new institutions of Christian benevolence. Our missions are beginning to be established in long neglected places, and many hitherto destitute children of the Reformed Church are now supplied with the bread of life by their own spiritual mother. Our Church literature, though as yet small, just now promises to grow in bulk and variety; and has already contributed very decidedly to the value of American Theological science.

The present state of this vigorously growing life reveals, to a considerable degree, our attainment to freedom, to unity, and to Christian love. In dubiis libertas; in necessariis, unitas; in omnibus, charitas.

We have now one General Synod, two district Synods, twenty-seven classes, in round numbers approximately about five hundred ministers, about twelve hundred congregations, about one hundred thousand baptized members yet unconfirmed, and about one hundred and thirty thousand confirmed members about one thousand Sunday Schools, two Theological Seminaries, one Mission House, four Colleges, besides quite a number of collegiate institutes and academics; seven religious papers, four of which are German, one monthly magazine, and now again, after two years suspension one Quarterly Review, a board of Home Missions, aboard of Foreign Missions; a Widows' Fund, and an Orphans' Home; and the amount collected during the year for her benevolent purposes will no doubt be considerably more than one hundred thousand dollars.

III. Bright Promise for the future, seems to be another noticeable feature in the present aspect of our beloved Reformed Church.

Who that has come to feel the intense life of Zion in this joyous festival year, in which the whole Church came together in the grand convention held in Philadelphia in January last, numbering more than five hundred delegates; which has called into living exercise the more enlarged church love of almost our entire membership; and which has now brought us together from the whole Church, except the two Classes of Virginia and North Carolina, in this first general assembly of our Triennial General Synod, whose sessions have been so full of oneness of spirit, in faith, in pious zeal, and in such sweet harmony and fraternal fellowship—who that has come to feel and see all this can fail to believe, that there is for the Reformed Church, a bright and most promising future.

Her genius and spirit, broad and Catholic, positive and irenical, firm and liberal, churchly and charitable—commends her to the future of our great land—and the world. There is nothing, circumscribed or provincial in her constitution, which limits her to any section, or class of people. Her present limits will now not necessarily be her future bounds. She has a right certainly, to go where she is not now known, and bring her “only comfort in life and death,” to the thousands who are willing to receive the truth of God at our hands.

Not only in the middle and central States, but in the east where the great activity of cultivated minds has exhausted itself in vain human speculations, and is now ready and longing, as was the old Greek world, to be taught positive divine truth, so as to satisfy truly, the human in the divine, has our Church a great mission for the future. And who shall estimate her future in the great west, teeming with its growing millions, many of whom are fast tending to the blankest infidelity, if she will but enter in and occupy and subdue the land, to the rule of grace and righteousness? What too, may not be her mission also in the South, after the war, where many of the hitherto active Churches of our land will find it difficult, to say the least, to introduce and maintain their peculiar type of Christianity?

With our better endowed Colleges and Seminaries; with our enlarged new schemes of benevolence; with our increased and increasing ministry; with our multiplying membership; and with our growing christological literature, we may reasonably expect, if we be but faithful to our true life in its peculiar catholic heartsomeness, the fulfilment of much of this bright promise. But wo be to us, if we heed not our divine Master's call to enter heartily upon this our mission, our high and holy calling in Christ Jesus.

And now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. B. RUSSELL, Chairman.

The Committee on Finance submitted their report, which was received, amended and adopted :

The Committee on Finance would respectfully report :

That, in the absence of all data, they have estimated the probable amount of the expenses of the General Synod, at five hundred dollars, including the cost of printing Rev. Dr. Nevin's sermon, which is seventy-nine dollars. And with reference to this amount, your Committee would recommend the following action :

Resolved, That of this amount of five hundred dollars, the sum of three hundred dollars be assessed on the Eastern Synod, and two hundred dollars on the Western Synod.

Resolved, That these sums, after having been apportioned by each of the Synods among the several Classes respectively, shall be paid into the Treasury of the General Synod without delay.

That they have not been able to agree on such a letter, and therefore ask to be discharged.

Respectfully submitted,
J. H. DERR, Chairman.

Thereupon the following resolution was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That, in conformity with the admonition of the Holy Scriptures, and, in imitation of the example of our ecclesiastical fathers during the period of the Revolution, this Synod admonish the pastors and members of the churches under its care, to remember that the powers that be are ordained of God, and that it is the solemn duty of all Christians, enjoying the protection of such civil rulers, to pray for them, and that we should feel especially obligated to do so during a time of peril like that through which our beloved country is now passing.

OBJECTS OF TERCENTENARY OFFERINGS.

On motion,

Resolved, That this General Synod recommend to the Tercentenary Convention of the Eastern Synod, the Waisenhaus zum Laemmerhirt (the Lambs' Shepherd's Orphan Asylum), as an object worthy of a portion of the Tercentenary Offerings during this year; and whatever be contributed to this object be properly acknowledged as such.

Resolved, That the Mission Institute of Sheboygan Classis, (Wisconsin), be regarded as one of the general objects of the benevolence of the Church, and that it be recommended to favorable notice in the distribution of the Tercentenary Offerings.

VOTE OF THANKS.

Resolved, That this General Synod tenders its thanks to the Rev. Cyrus Cort, Geo. H. Johnston, Walter E. Krebs, Thomas J. Barkley, John I. Swander and Theo. P. Bucher, for their valuable and laborious services as reporters, in furnishing regular reports of its proceedings for the five daily papers of the city of Pittsburg.

Resolved, That we, as an Ecclesiastical body, return our thanks to the several Railroad Companies, having the roads, hereinafter named, under their control, for their kindness and liberality in permitting our delegates to pass over their roads at half fare, to wit: The Columbus and Steubenville, Allegheny Valley, Pennsylvania Central, Cumberland Valley, Northern Central, Lebanon Valley, and the East Pennsylvania Railroads.

Resolved, That, having enjoyed, during our sessions of eight days' continuance, the marked kindness and hospitality of the members of Grace Church, and of the citizens of the cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny, we, as a Synod, do hereby return our sincere and hearty thanks to them for such favors, with the prayer that the blessings of divine grace may abundantly rest upon them and their families.

Resolved, That the pastor loci announce this resolution from the pulpit, and the reporters report it for publication, in the daily papers of Pittsburg.

THE SEXTON REMUNERATED.

On motion,

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of Rev. John Rebaugh and Elder Henry Leonard, be appointed to take up a collection for the purpose of remunerating Mr. J. Steiner, sexton of Grace Church, for his services during the whole of the sessions of this Synod.

The Committee, in compliance with the foregoing resolution, collected the sum of $13.25, and paid over the same as directed.

The Minutes were read and adopted, and ordered to be engrossed.

The roll was called, and none were found absent without excuse, except Rev. Geo. Rettig, John I. Swander, Samuel B. Leiter, and Elders Hugh Moore, John C. Kremer and Thos. W. Chapman.

The Synod adjourned at 10 o'clock, after a harmonious, important and encouraging convocation of eight days, to meet at the time appointed. Closed with singing, and prayer and the apostolic benediction by Rev. Dr. D. Zacharias.
